

Patient Appointment Specialist

We are seeking a front office floater. Primary duties include: answering the telephone, verifying patient appointments and responding to patient record requests. The ideal candidate should have outstanding telephone, secretarial, communication and computer skills. Organization and the ability to multi-task are a must. This position requires a positive, energetic attitude and the ability to work efficiently as part of a team.

This is a permanent, full-time position.